France Will Take Over Sixth Viscount Lives in German Industrial Area, Is Threat

PARIS, Aug 18—(By the Associated Press)—The reparations commission today continued its task of seeking a solution of the Franco-German tangle, but a final decision is not expected for at least a week. A large section of French opinion criticizes the decision the commission is understood to have taken to send a delegation to Berlin.

The witnesses included Mrs. Herbert Cox. widow, and Mrs. Elizabeth Haywood, the mother of the slain man. Cox, they said, was right handed. He was killed by a shot which entered his left side and the prosecution contends the women's testimony tends to prove he did not shoot himself.

William O'Brien, a deputy sheriff, told of intercepting O Brien in the attempted jail break and of hearing a shot after which he found Cox's body on the floor, with Wilson standing over it.

Tom Meighan, Now Showing at Alhambra Discusses Bret Marte

According to Thomas Meighan, who went with the Paramount company to Northern California, to shoot scenes for, "If You Belleve R, It's So." his new Paramount picture, directed by Tom Forman, Bret Harte, the celebrated novelist, must have lived in party every house in every smull nearly every house in every small town in the early mining regions of California.

"We had heard," said the star, "that Harte lived and wrote in "Jim-town," so I made some inquiries. Just as in New York, you learn that every as in New York, you learn that every old building from Montauk Point to Poughkeepsle was once the headquarters of George Washington, so in these old mining villages, of California, you discover that Bret Harte, Mark Twain or somebody of like literary fame slept and wrote his greatest novels in every house dating from '49.

"They must have believed in the adage 'it's cheaper to move than pay the rent,' for they evidently kept on the jump all the time to cover the ground."
